WAY

Dear Dr Burleigh,

I was given your name
by one of the quds of the Archives
Library of Canada, as an authority on U.E.L's and especially of Prince Edward County.

I am descended from Daniel Way
& his son Samuel who went to Sophiasburg from Dutchess County N.Y.
about 1797 & 98.

Daniel Way married Lemina
Kilburn (1740-1818) in 1764 in Dutchess C.
daughter of James Kilburn.

Samuel Way married Catherine
Pine daughter of Amos Pine of Hempstead

3.
I believe Jacob Wood came to
Can. with his parents Wm W. Wood.

Can you Tell me anything about the Woods or Van Sicklers?

I found in Fredericksburg marriages.

Peter Van Sickler m.: Elizabeth Howell

Thank you for your consideration and help.

Sincerely

Betsy Patterson

(Mrs Lorne Patterson)

N.Y. then Fishkill, Dutchess County died 1784
and Catherine Tillce of N.Y.

Catherine Pine got a grant of land
1797 in Sophiasburg.

Amos Way (son of Samuel & Catherine
Pine) 1792-1859 married Mary (Polly)
Smith born in Bay of Quinte May 21, 1799

Mr. G. S. May, U.E., CD.,
24 Carlyle Avenue,
Ottawa 1, Ont.

Dear Mr. May:--

Your very welcome letter, with enclosures, is very much appreciated. I was fascinated by your editorial, particularly as it gave some very excellent advice to all members of our organization. You did not entirely agree with my sentiments on proposed changes in membership qualifications, nor did you agree with Dr. Dillane's very wide and sweeping changes in eligibility, which would admit to membership and anglophile whose ancestor was alive in the period 1776-1783.

I am sorry that you did not visit me on your trips to your homeland. So many people do, all of which I enjoy very much. I should particularly discuss with you your descent from Peter Ruttan. I, too, am a Ruttan descendant. Peter's eldest sister, Elizabeth, wife of Matthew Van Narden, was my fourth great grandmother. For the past year or two, I have been working on an abbreviated genealogy of the Ruttans. This would cover six generations, ending with the grandchildren of Captain Peter and his siblings. As you know, our knowledge of the children and grandchildren of Captain Peter is very uncertain. I say this as I have been forced to rely largely on the genealogy as appears in Pioneer Life in the Bay of Quinte. This, as you must know, deals very uncertainly with Peter's family. I should appreciate your help in this Branch.

I, too, am an anglophile. I cherish the land of my one English grandmother. I so often regret my timidity in World War I. I recall walking by Westminster Abbey, with nothing to do, and was too shy to go in. Still, I loved what I saw in the Old Land, and, if I had not had a good home in Canada, I might well have remained there. Sometimes I wish I had. I also enjoy my frequent visits to New York State and Vermont, where I visit the homeland of my Loyalist ancestors. In fact, I resided in U. S. for eight years, coming back to Canada in 1935, in order that my children would be raised as Canadians. So, I am proud of the land of my birth, and of my ancestors. I also hate to see our Association chased by pseudo-Loyalists, Late Loyalists, etc. I am also worried that so many of our politicians seem to be hesitant to admit their Loyalist ancestry. The Loyalist Gazette is a fine paper which seems to be in good demand by libraries and schools. I feel that our mutual friend John Chard deserves a great deal of credit, as well as persons like yourself. Keep up the good work!

It is a pity that our members fall into the post 40 category. I have often expressed my estimation of them, as "once they have been accepted as members, they fold their arms, cross their legs, and watch George do it." In our Branch, were it not for a half-dozen we would lapse into hibernation.

I had better close and start preparations for my departure tomorrow morning for a week spent down the Mohawk. I shall be looking forward to a visit from you.

Yours sincerely,

By the time this editorial gets into print, the question of whether or may not be a new "regular" member of the United Empire Loyalist Association of Canada may have been settled, for the time being at least; and regardless of what that decision may be, the appearance of an issue that inspires serious thought, earnest discussion and even heated argument is a good thing for the Association.

If it is the fore-runner of other thought-provoking, interesting issues, so much the better.

Now let's put the current issue in perspective.

There can be no question, of course, as to who is a loyalist and who isn't. A Loyalist is a person who can trace his lineage to an ancestor who adequately met the qualifications established to designate the original Loyalists.

Regardless of their wishes or inclinations, such persons cannot change their birth-right, however much they may deny it; and those who do not have that heritage cannot acquire it.

These facts are not altered by domicile or allegiance.

The question, then, is full membership in our Association. Briefly, it is proposed that such membership would be restricted to those persons who can prove that they are Loyalists and, in addition, owe allegiance to the Crown. Loyalists who do not owe allegiance to the Crown would be eligible for associate membership only, along with the spouses of regular members.

If this means that the Association plans to actively promote the monarchical form of government in Canada, and to strengthen our ties with Britain and the Commonwealth, the proposal is understandable and, as far as this writer is concerned, commendable. Loyalists owing allegiance to other countries or to no country at all are not

But if we are to continue as a genealogical society, wholly, there appears to be little justification for having the membership among the Loyalists in the Association. What justification there is would appear to be emotional and decisions based wholly on emotion are usually bad, as our growing divorce rate amply testifies.

Nearly all of the people affected by this proposal would be residents and citizens of the United States, and it is hard to conceive of Loyalist relatives in that country out-numbering and out-voting the membership. Indeed, if that ever became a real possibility, it would be the best reason we've had for a membership drive since 1776.

Let us, then, have a clear statement as to the purpose of this proposal, both immediately and in the long run. In other words, what is the object of the exercise?

Let us be sure we know what we're doing, and why.

And above all, let's have more life-transfusing issues for our Association.

2 Sept 1938

Dear John:

Your letter of 23 August made me feel very guilty for it reminded me that I had done nothing about your earlier letter, nor about the editorial it requested.

To be honest, I was thinking about a subject for an editorial but without much success. I don't want to become repetitive or unimportant, and several attractive subjects are a bit too touchy for a senior civil servant. Consequently I'll welcome any suggestions you may have from time to time for editorial subjects.

However, concurrently almost with the receipt of your letter, I had a visit with Leonard Warner who loaned me his copy of the memorandum of 1 August headed 'The Executive and Relations of all Branches'. It seemed to me to be a lengthy treatise which should be simplified into a clear-cut issue. The attached editorial attempts to do that. If I have misinterpreted this material, or if that is prima facie evidence that it will mislead most of the membership; if I haven't, then I may be making a contribution to the discussion.

And I realize that you may already have prepared a much better editorial on the same subject.

It was most gratifying to learn of the support you have obtained from Col. McLaughlin for the Dominion Council. I hope it and he will be featured in the next cassette. Is he a Royalist?

Your remarks about my small contributions are much appreciated too, though undeserved I fear. I'm glad that Dr. Walton-All has been re-appointed to head the Public Relations Committee. He has a tough assignment. I think you should decide whether or not my address should be in the cassette. I think my preference would be to leave it out, purely because it may attract mail I haven't time to answer.

I wish I knew what is wrong with our Branch here. I'm beginning to think it won't survive. Ottawa seems to be full of people who want to be card-carrying but non-working (often for good reasons) members of associations. Perhaps another President, when we have an Annual Meeting, will help.

Yours sincerely,

J. H. H. H.

Dear Dr Burleigh,

Thank you for your reply to my letter
and the tip re "Puritan Life on the Bay of Quirke".

The Samuel Way mentioned in it is my gr.-gr.-gr.
grandfather.

I didn't realize the Wood family was mentioned in the book so I must look it up again.

I will also check any Fredericksburg records I can find for the Jan Sicklers. Since my gr. grandfather
Elizabeth Anne Jan Sickler was born in Sophiasburg 1830 I was looking only for Sophiasburg records and they aren't as plentiful as Fredericksburg.

Thank you again for your time and help.

Sincerely

Dr. H. C. Burleigh, U.E.,
Bath, Ontario.

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

It was very good of you to send me a copy of your letter to all UEL Association branches, and of your letter to our President, Dominion Council. I appreciate very much this opportunity to know your thinking on the subject to qualification for membership in the UEL Association.

Before commenting on these memoranda, I would like to say that I have intended to call on you in Bath on several occasions over the past several years, but I have procrastinated for a variety of reasons. As you may know, I grew up in Wooler, near Trenton, and still go down to that part of the country quite frequently. I enjoy returning to Ottawa via Glenora and, if time permits, I often dawdle in and around Adolphustown or visit Ruttan Point which, I presume, was named for my UEL ancestor, Capt. Peter Ruttan, and his brother, William.

Nevertheless I would welcome an opportunity to chat with you about Loyalist matters, and I will call one day; and return on a subsequent occasion if my visit is inconvenient or inopportune.

With respect to the issue of UEL Association membership, I must confess I have a pretty open mind so far. As you will see from the attached, I have sent off an editorial to the Gazette on the subject, but it had little more purpose than trying to reduce the issue to simple terms and alternatives for the Gazette readers. I hope, in my ignorance of some of the background and philosophies, that I have not achieved the opposite effect.

I am, of course, very much an anglophile, living and working in an area and environment where this is becoming increasingly a disadvantage, by decree and otherwise. Perhaps that is why so many of my editorials have been aimed at stimulating the Association to be a spokesman, if not a leader, for those Canadians who still admire the Queen, who want to retain the monarchical form of government and who value the British ties and heritage. After all, mature people do not sever family ties, history and symbols when they reach adulthood and financial independence; and I resent the moves being made in so many quarters nowadays to do just that on a national basis.

I am also firm in my stand against any consideration of any form of political union or even attachment with the United States. The time is not far off when they will need more and more of our natural resources, and we should make them available to them only on a sale-and-purchase basis, preferably in their finished form. Our UEL ancestors laid the foundation of our present Ontario in a very short time, and we should not do anything to compromise our heritage.

As far as the French are concerned, on either side of the ocean, they have their own ideas, their own society, their language, their church and their other institutions. I am only too happy to leave them to enjoy or flounder in them; and I wish they would grant me the same privilege.

But notwithstanding my editorial efforts, I am rapidly coming to the opinion that the Association is, and will remain, a genealogical society almost exclusively. John Chard tells me that there are many members who support my views, but I fear that there is more flattery than truth in those remarks. I have come to that conclusion most regretfully because I don't think that the Association can survive without a constructive and fitting purpose. I hasten to add that I do not deprecate the value and need for the genealogical objectives; I simply believe that we need both if we are to have a strong and viable Association.

If my conclusion is correct, then, I can't help wondering if domicile and allegiance are important membership qualifications. It is my understanding that certain other similar organizations - e.g. the Mayflower Society - don't worry about them; and if our primary purpose is to trace our family lineages and perhaps to gather some family history in the process, perhaps our Loyalist relatives in the United States and elsewhere could be helpful and interesting members.

There is no justification, of course, for full membership to be granted to any individual who cannot satisfactorily trace his ancestry to an original Loyalist who came to what is now Canada within the perscribed period and under the defined conditions. That would rule out anyone whose ancestor went elsewhere as a result of the revolutionary war.

I hope I haven't bored you unduly with these thoughts and that we will have an opportunity soon to discuss them in person.

Yours sincerely,

G. S. Way
